

BREAST CANCER RESEARCH

Impacting the Future

Breast Cancer Research (formerly NBCRI) Fundraising Proposal Form

We are delighted that you are considering raising funds to support world class breast cancer research at NUI Galway. Our vision is to have a real and measurable impact on outcomes for breast cancer patients.

Integrity is of paramount importance to us, our donors and of course, to our fundraisers. We want your fundraising to be a rewarding, enjoyable and safe experience. Our fundraising terms and conditions have been put together to assist individuals, organisations and other groups that would like to hold an event or fundraise for Breast Cancer Research. Please read the terms and conditions before completing our Fundraising Proposal Form.

Remember, we are here to help so if you have any questions or need any further information, just telephone us on 091 863 917 or email Hello@BreastCancerResearch.ie

Fundraising Terms and Conditions

Authority to Fundraise for Breast Cancer Research

To organise and conduct a fundraising event in the name of Breast Cancer Research, you must:

- Provide photo ID and recent utility bill.
- Be 18 years or over (if under 18 years of age, you will need permission from a parent / guardian).
- Complete this form and submit it to Breast Cancer Research at least 14 days prior to the event.
- Once approved, Breast Cancer Research will issue you with a formal confirmation letter.

NOTE:

Please do not make any announcements or publicise the fundraiser until Breast Cancer Research gives approval.

Fundraising for Breast Cancer Research

- Activities must be conducted in accordance with all applicable laws.
- Breast Cancer Research is happy to offer advice and guidance for coordinating your activity, however, the overall running of the event, including expenses, promotion, record keeping and management is ultimately your responsibility.
- Breast Cancer Research insurance cannot extend to volunteer events - you should seek independent insurance advice.
- Please advise Breast Cancer Research of any changes to details provided in this form prior to the event.
- Before organising a public collection, you will require a permit. Please contact your local Garda station for advice regarding necessary permits.
- If you are organising a raffle where tickets are to be sold to people other than your guests, you should contact your local Garda station for advice. All lotteries must comply with the law.
- Door-to-door calls are only permissible if you know the residents and should be made during daylight hours.
- Please advise us of any individual or corporate sponsors who have made a contribution of €500 or more, so that Breast Cancer Research can formally thank them for supporting you.
- Approval to repeat an event must be requested separately prior to each event from Breast Cancer Research.

Cash Handling & Banking

To comply with good fundraising practice and to preserve the integrity of the organiser:

- It is required that at least two people are involved with the counting, recording and remitting of proceeds.
- We recommend that Proceeds be recorded on a summary sheet and signed by the 2 collectors at the time of collection.
- Collection monies should be kept secure at all times.
- All net proceeds must be submitted to Breast Cancer Research within 30 days of the conclusion of the event. This requirement is also necessary to comply with collections held under An Garda Síochána permits.
- Please do not send cash through the post.

Use of Breast Cancer Research Name, Logo & Branding

- In naming the event, 'Breast Cancer Research' should not be used in the title, but as beneficiary of the net proceeds. For example: '(Event Name) to benefit Breast Cancer Research'.
- Prior approval must be sought from Breast Cancer Research for any printed materials, advertisements, media materials and releases associated with the event.
